

Sabbath Candles
ADDING CANDLES

old words in Musik I

RCE

JMB

Can-dles are a spe-cial part of ev-ry cel-e-bra-tion

Put them on a fan-cy cake for birth-day dec-o-ra-tion —

Fri-day eve-ning as the sun is set-ting in the West —

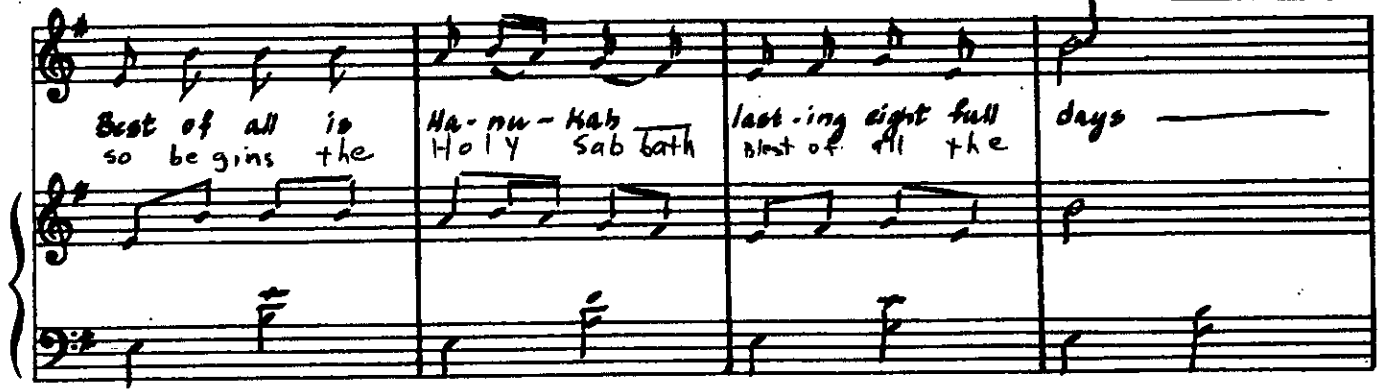

Can-dles greet the Sab-bath Queen, the love-ly wel-come guest —

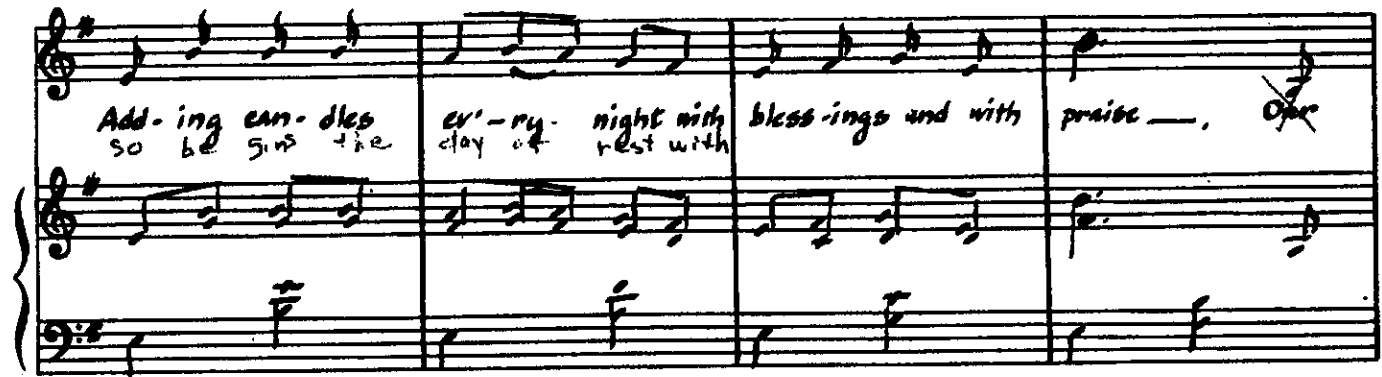

0349 Musik

Best of all is so begins the Ha-nu-kah Holy Sab bath last-ing eight full days

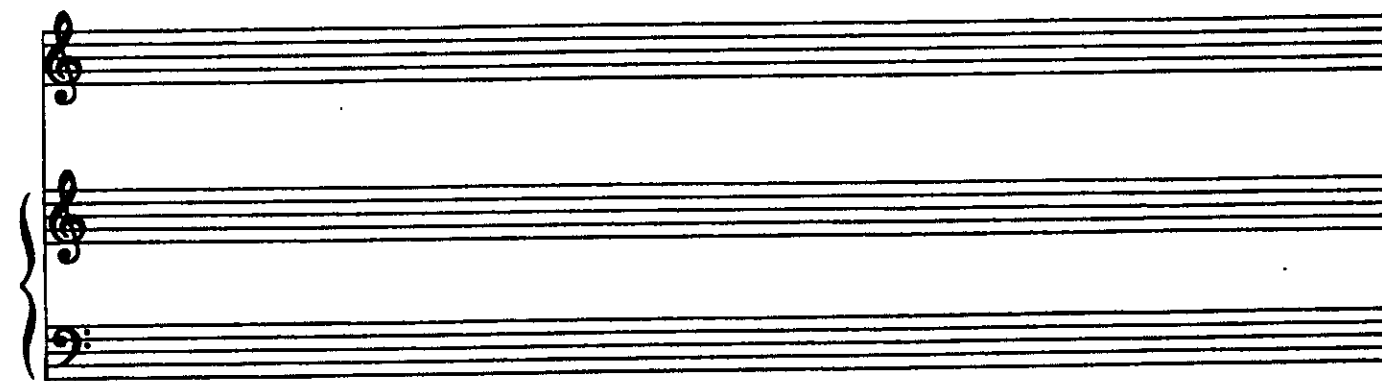

Add-ing can-dles so be-gins the ev'-ry- night with bless-ings and with praise hap-py voi-ces raise!

5/29/65 JMS

CAN YOU GUESS?
A Sukkot Riddle

The Festival of Thanksgiving is based on the Harvest Festival of Sukkot. The early Pilgrims were very religious men and women and knew the Bible very well. The inspiration for Thanksgiving was drawn from the Bible. Therefore both Jewish history and custom as well as the spirit of the Bible served as the basis for the first American Thanksgiving celebrated in the fall of 1621.

What am I? What am I?
Can you guess? -- tell me "yes!"
Here's the first clue I will give you:
Who can tell? Listen well!
Branches tall in a sheaf,
Hear the rustle of their leaf,
As they bend and sway.

What am I? What am I?
Can you guess? -- tell me "yes!"
Here's the next clue I will give you,
Who can tell? Listen well!
Sprig of myrtle for my eye,
Spine of palm arching high,
Willow smiling too.

What am I? What am I?
Can you guess? Tell me "yes!"
Here's the third clue I will give you,
Who can tell? Listen well.
My home is open to the sky,
Fruits of season hang up high,
Time of thanks and praise.

What am I? What am I?
Can you guess? -- tell me "yes!"
Here's the last clue I will give you,
Who can tell? Listen well!
Not alone do I stand,
Join an etrog held in hand,
Lovely fragrant heart.

What am I? What am I?
Did you guess? Tell me "yes!"
Not one more clue will I give you,
Who can tell? Listen well!
I'm the lulav, and each year,
In the Sukkah I appear:
Harvest Festival!

Rose C. Engel
Judith M. Berman

0351

CAN YOU GUESS?
THANKSGIVING

N.S. 1129
Please submit to authors promptly - D. J. & Will understand why W.C.H.
348

RE
SME

What am I? What am I?
Can you guess? Tell me "Yes!"
Listen to the clue I give you
Who can tell? Listen well!

yes! Listen to the clue I give you. Who can tell? Listen

Fragrant smell of spice and pie
Fruits of season

hang up high Harvest Festival

THANKSGIVING

What am I? What am I?
Can you guess? Tell me "Yes!"
Listen to the clue I give you
Who can tell? Listen well!
Fragrant smell of spice and pie
Fruits of season hang up high,
Time of thanks and praise.

What am I? What am I?
Can you guess? Tell me "Yes!"
Listen to the clue I give you
Who can tell? Listen well!
Pilgrims on their happy day
Teach us of their thankful way
Harvest Festival!

0352

RCE
JMB

JMB

What am I? What am I? Can you guess? Tell me yes! Here's the first clue I will give you: Who can tell? Lis - ten well!

0353

4/17/63
JMB